

All Hallows Eve Mass October 31 at the Crypt

Auxiliary Bishop Francisco Gonzalez SF will be celebrating Mass in the Crypt of the Basilica of the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception at 5:00 p.m. on October 31, 2009, for the Vigil of All Saints Day and all are welcome.

The Mass is being sponsored by the Association of Ecclesial Movements and New Communities of the Archdiocese of Washington.

For to Him, All are Alive!

Children are encouraged to dress up as saints and after the Mass cookies and punch will be served outside the Crypt in Assembly Hall.

There will also be tables displaying information about each Catholic movement or community where candy may be distributed to each child who announces and gives a “Truth for a Treat.”
